ACCENT FURNISHINGS FROM CAROLYN KINDER FOR MAGNUSSEN HOME DELIVERED IN FIVE DAYS WITH NEW ACCENTS EXPRESS PROGRAM™

HIGH POINT, N.C., OCTOBER 14, 2004 – Each of the more than 100 pieces in the new Carolyn Kinder for Magnussen Home collection is part of Magnussen Home's unprecedented quick-ship Accents Express Program™, being unveiled at the International Home Furnishings Market here, October 14-20.

The Accents Express Program™ promises to deliver home accent furnishings to participating retailers in the United States and Canada in just five working days, a practice that is unheard of in a segment of the industry marked by inconsistent product flow to stores.

“Magnussen Home is known for generating ideas and instituting programs that go beyond the expected,” says Jeff Cook, president and chief executive officer. “Very few companies are able to stock and quick-ship home accent furnishings. The Accents Express Program™ will help us achieve our goal of revolutionizing this segment of the industry.”

Unlike case goods and upholstery, which are usually special ordered, home accent furniture is most often sold right off the floor.

“A consumer comes in, buys a great accent chest or planter and takes it home that day,” Cook says. “It may be weeks or months – if ever – before the store receives a replacement. The retailer is left with either an empty space or the time-consuming chore of rearranging the floor.”

With the Accents Express Program, the retailer simply reorders the item, and a replacement arrives within five days.

“With hundreds of home accent furnishings in our Magnussen Home, Cristina Ferrare Home Collections and Carolyn Kinder for Magnussen Home lines, we offer a wide assortment of home accent furnishings to suit any taste or design style,” Cook says. “The Accents Express Program will help spice up the sales floors of retailers of all sizes without costing them time or aggravation.”
